Ta Kung Pao.SHANGHAI SETS UP GROUPS TO STUDY ECONOMIC, OTHER PROBLEMS

Shanghai -- The first meeting of the Standing Committee of the Shanghai Political Consultative Committee was held on 4 May 1950 and attended by Chairman Ch'en I and 18 others. Five groups of the committee, including Industry and Commerce, Labor-Capital, Culture and Education, Taxes, and General Problems', were established.

According to Ch'en I, the main functions of these groups are: (1) to undertake a more detailed study of the matters brought before the Political Consultative Committee and the Standing Committee and to submit their findings to the Political Consultative or the Standing Committee meetings for discussion; and (2) to gather general public opinion regarding the problems on hand to be presented before the Standing Committee for discussion, and to disseminate government policy to the people. Through the establishment of these groups, it is hoped that the government and the Political Consultative Committee will be able to obtain general public opinion on all problems.
